2023 Project and Budget Annual Report

The objectives of the 2023 projects were to enhance the systematic documentation of human rights abuses in Myanmar and bring grassroots attention to the human rights violations happening on the ground. ND-Burma provided training in numerous areas through the ND-Burma network.

This report presents details of activities undertaken by six donors.

- American Bar Association (Dec 2022- Nov 2023)
- German Embassy (Jan – Dec 2023)
- Forum Civ (Jan – Dec 2023)
- Trocaire (Jan – Dec 2023)
- Forum Asia (Nov2022 – May 2023)
- Tides Foundation (1 December 2020 through 30 November 2021 (extended to 30 November 2023))

With these donors, ND-Burma has achieved significant milestones during the year.

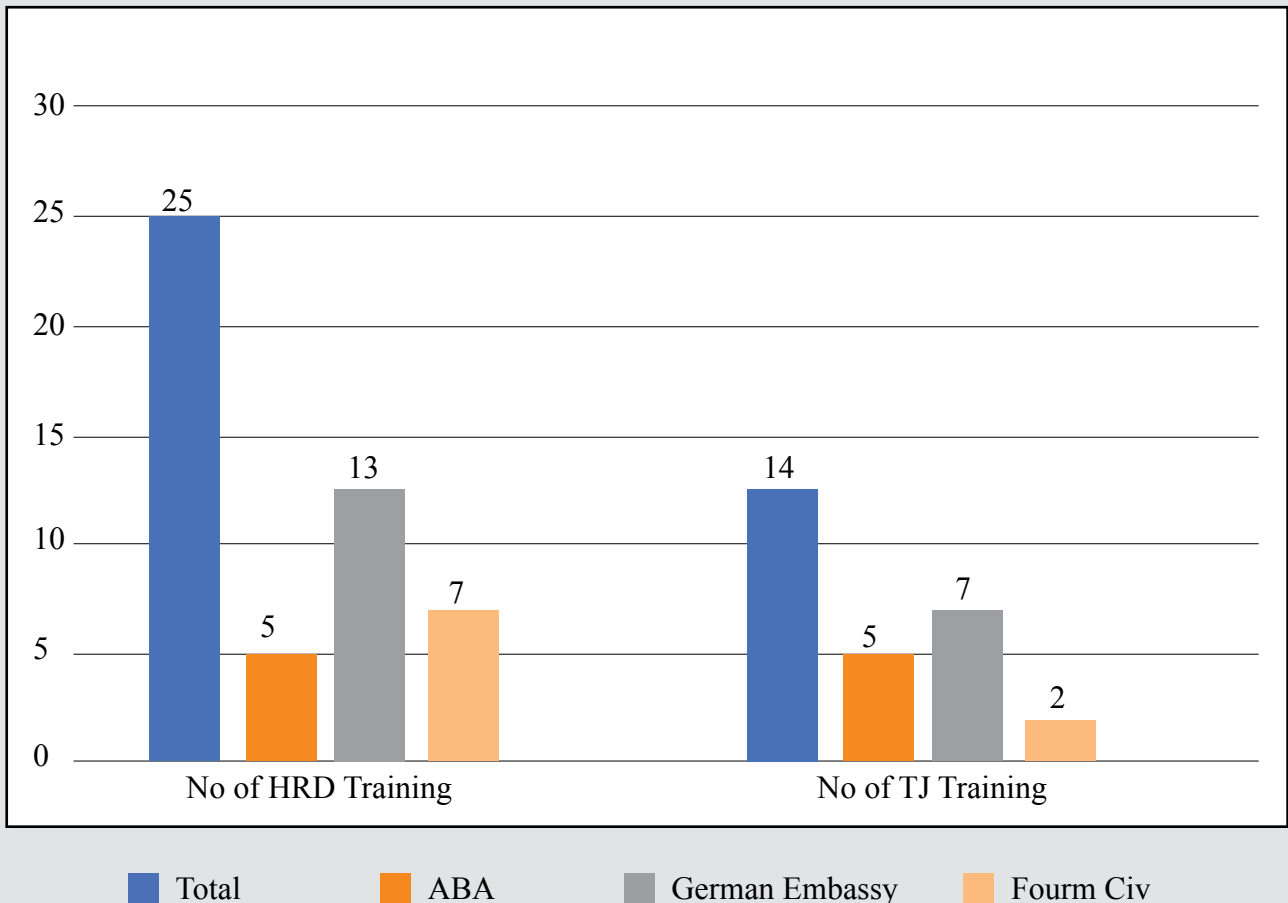

- 25 Human Rights Documentation Training Sessions.
- 14 Transitional Justice Training Sessions.
- Creating 8 Animation Videos for Education purposes.
- Uwazi Database Training and collection of data for Supporting Documentation.
- Online publishing Transitional Justice Module (Basic and Advanced level) for educational purposes.
- Supporting funds provided to 449 Human Rights Defenders, Documenters, Activists, CDM Participants, and Political Prisoners.

A total of 25 HRD training sessions were conducted in 2023 across various partner organizations. ND-Burma trained 599 participants, improving their capacity to document human rights violations. Moreover, a total of 14 Transitional Justice (TJ) training sessions were organized in 2023, engaging 326 participants from various areas in Myanmar. 925 Human Rights Defenders, Documenters, Activists, CDM Participants, and youth joined various trainings. 269 cases were documented across multiple network organizations.

4) Trocaire

In 2023, ND-Burma supported 449 human rights defenders, documenters, activists, CDM participants, and political prisoners across Northern and Southern Shan, Mon, and Kayin States, and the Tanintharyi, Ayeyarwaddy, Bago, Mandalay, Magway, and Yangon Regions. Key contributions from organizations such as Tavoyan Women’s Union (TWU), Human Rights Foundation of Monland (HURFOM), Association of Human Rights Defenders and Promoters (HRDP), Ta’ang Students and Youth Union (TSYU), Kachin Women’s Association-Thailand (KWAT) , and Ta’ang Women’s Organization (TWO) were instrumental in achieving the project objectives.

Through this collaborative effort, the network members provided relocation support for 80 human rights defenders, assistance to 57 political prisoners, 89 cases of emergency support, and 223 instances of support for humanitarian aid. ND-Burma has contributed to the resilience of human rights defenders, documenters, activists, CDM participants, and political prisoners facing the challenges brought about by the conflict, ensuring the sustained efforts of those dedicated to promoting and protecting human rights in Myanmar.
